

UWS School of Medicine Staff Members

The Foundation Dean, Professor Neville Yeomans, was appointed in October 2004 to lead the planning and development of the new School. Professor Yeomans has a distinguished record as a clinician, medical educator and researcher as well as a commitment to service in both professional organisations and government committees.

A solid academic team has been assembled, with an emphasis on those areas that are critical to the early years of the MBBS program. Further appointments will be made progressively in coming years.
